Chapter 6. Procedure for Coordination of International Activities of Central Government Bodies

Footnote The title of Chapter 6 as amended by Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 25.01.2022 № 786.

Footnote. The Rules as added by section 6 in accordance with the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 18.05.2015 № 23.

42. International activities of central state bodies, except for the issues of their interaction with the Commission and the World Trade Organization, shall be coordinated by the MFA.

Foreign missions of the Republic of Kazakhstan coordinate the activities of representative offices (representatives) and branches of state bodies and organizations of the Republic of Kazakhstan located in a host state.

43. The operational interaction between the central state bodies and the MFA on issues of international activity is entrusted to state bodies' structural units responsible for international cooperation.

44. Official correspondence between central state bodies and foreign state bodies, diplomatic missions and international organizations, except for official correspondence of central state bodies with the World Trade Organization, is conducted through the MFA, unless otherwise provided for by legislative acts, acts of the President and Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan, or effective international treaties of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

If it is necessary to explore issues with a foreign party, within the next five days central state bodies may send letters to foreign state bodies, diplomatic missions and international organizations with subsequent notification of the MFA about the letters sent and their content.

Footnote. Clause 44 is in the wording of the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 13.11.2017 № 582.

45. For the purposes of pursuing common foreign policy line of the Republic of Kazakhstan by its central state bodies, the MFA shall:

1) carry out general monitoring and coordination of the implementation of international obligations of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

2) provide assistance to central state bodies in establishing and developing international cooperation with foreign states and international organizations, as well as in preparing and conducting international events;

3) clarify the issues of foreign policy of the Republic of Kazakhstan to central state bodies ;

4) in advance inform the central state bodies about international events, the subject of which is within their competence;

5) carry out interdepartmental coordination of the work of the structural units of the central state bodies responsible for international cooperation.

46. The central state bodies shall:

1) coordinate the issues relating to international activities of a state body with the MFA;

2) once a year, on or before December 20, submit to the MFA information for the past period on international activities of a state body, as well as on international events planned for next year, including foreign economic ones;

3) at the MFA's request, within seven working days of completion of an international event held by a state body, send a report to the MFA, which indicates the composition of its participants, issues discussed, agreements reached, including the state body's viewpoint and, if necessary, proposals for further elaboration of relevant issues;

4) with the MFA's approval, ensure the participation of representatives of the diplomatic services of the Republic of Kazakhstan in international events organized and (or) conducted by a state body;

5) coordinate the implementation of international image-building projects with the MFA.

47. The MFA summarizes and analyzes the information provided by central state bodies and uses the data obtained in preparing international events, as well as in developing the official position of the Republic of Kazakhstan on pressing international issues.

48. When conducting international events outside the Republic of Kazakhstan, heads of delegations of central state bodies, prior to traveling outside the Republic of Kazakhstan, must conduct written consultations with the MFA officials to clarify the position of the Republic of Kazakhstan on pressing foreign policy issues.

By agreement between a central state body and the MFA, consultations may be carried out in other forms.

49. If representatives of foreign states or international organizations hold several meetings and (or) talks in the Republic of Kazakhstan, an official, with whom meetings and (or) talks were held, shall immediately inform the subsequent hosting official (subsequent officials) of the contents of the conversation and agreements reached in the following forms:

- 1) orally – if subsequent meetings and (or) talks take place the same day;
- 2) in writing – if subsequent meetings and (or) talks take place next day or later.

If the MFA takes no part in meetings and (or) talks, information on the composition of participants and agreements reached shall be sent to the MFA within five working days of a meeting and (or) talks.

50. The requirements of Chapter 6 of these Rules shall not apply to the Presidential Administration and the Government Office.

The requirements of paragraph 46 of these Rules do not apply to international activities of central state bodies in the areas of criminal proceedings, counterintelligence and intelligence activities, operational-search and investigative information, issues of training and staffing of law enforcement officials, organization of operational and official activities of law enforcement agencies, events aimed at ensuring the security of protected persons and objects, issues of the investment policy and cooperation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, as well as the development of trade and economic cooperation within international and regional organizations, including the Eurasian Economic Union and the World Trade Organization.

The requirements of paragraphs 48 and 49 of these Rules do not apply to international activities of special state bodies.

Footnote. Paragraph 50 as added by the Decree of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 25.01.2022 № 786; dated 13.04.2023 № 195 (shall be enforced from the date of its first official publication).
