Rules for the Provision of Information on State Registration of a Vessel Mortgage or a Vessel under Construction

Chapter 1. General provisions

1. These Rules for the Provision of Information on State Registration of a Vessel Mortgage or a Vessel under Construction are developed in accordance with Paragraph 6-1 of Article 212 of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated January 17, 2002 "On Merchant Shipping" and determine the procedure for providing information on the state registration of the mortgage of the vessel or the vessel under construction.

2. State registration of a vessel mortgage or a vessel under construction shall be carried out by the territorial divisions of the authorized body (hereinafter referred to as the territorial division) by making an appropriate entry in the state ship registry of sea vessels, the ship book and the register of vessels under construction (hereinafter - the register of vessels) in which this vessel shall be registered.

Chapter 2. The procedure for providing information on state registration of a vessel mortgage or a vessel under construction

3. Upon the request of an individual or legal entity in any form, the territorial division shall provide information in the form of an extract or a copy from the register of vessels. In this case, the extract shall contain:

1) indications that the information on the mortgage is presented at the end of the business day preceding the day the statement was issued;

2) the signature of the authorized official of the territorial division, certified by the seal of the territorial division.

The deadline for providing information shall be two business days from the date of application.

4. The information on state registration of a vessel mortgage or a vessel under construction shall be provided free of charge.

5. The information on the state registration of a vessel mortgage or a vessel under construction shall be open to all individuals and legal entities.

6. In the absence of any records on the mortgage in relation to a vessel or a vessel under construction, the extract shall contain an appropriate indication of this.
