Rules for awarding extraordinary ranks to officials of the prosecution system of the Republic of Kazakhstan

1. These Rules for awarding extraordinary ranks to officials of the prosecution system of the Republic of Kazakhstan are developed in accordance with paragraph 4 of Article 26 of the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan “On Law Enforcement Service” as of January 6, 2011 and establish the procedure for awarding extraordinary ranks to officials of the prosecution system of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

2. A decision to award an extraordinary rank is made by the General Prosecutor of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

3. An extraordinary rank is awarded to officials on the basis of submissions from the heads of structural units of the General Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic of Kazakhstan, regional prosecutors and those equated to them (except for the Chief Military Prosecutor), Chairman of the Committee on Legal Statistics and Special Accounts of the General Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic of Kazakhstan, President of the Law Enforcement Academy at the General Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic of Kazakhstan (hereinafter referred to as the head of the unit) as a reward for exceptional service of officials with at least one-third of time of service in their current ranks, but a new rank they are promoted to may only be one rank higher than that they currently have.

In case of exceptional service, an extraordinary rank is awarded regardless of the length of service in a current rank, but a new rank an official is promoted to may only be one rank higher than that he/she currently has.

4. Extraordinary ranks may not be awarded more than twice within the entire time of service in the prosecution system.

5. The running of the time of service in a rank shall be calculated from the day it is awarded to an official.

6. The submission on awarding an extraordinary rank (hereinafter referred to as the Submission) is sent to the Personnel Department of the General Prosecutor’s Office of the Republic of Kazakhstan in accordance with the form in the Appendix to these Rules.

7. Control over the reliability of information specified in the Submission is entrusted to the heads of units.

8. An extraordinary rank may not be awarded:

- 1) if a disciplinary action hasn’t been removed;
- 2) during an internal investigation;

3) in case of a pre-trial investigation or initiation of an administrative violation case

9. Submissions are considered by a commission chaired by a deputy of the General Prosecutor of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Following the Submission's consideration, it is decided either:

- 1) to recommend awarding an extraordinary rank; or
- 2) to refuse to allow the Submission.

10. A decision to award an extraordinary rank shall be documented by an order of the General Prosecutor of the Republic of Kazakhstan.
