Footnote. Article 15 – as reworded by Law of the RK No. 356-VI of 02.07.2020 (shall be enacted ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication).

Article 15-1. Restriction of participation in gambling and/or betting

1. An individual may restrict his or her own participation in gambling and/or betting for a period of six months to one year by personally submitting a written application in any form to any gambling organiser.

2. The application must contain the surname, first name, patronymic (if stated in the identity document), details of the identity document, duration of restriction of participation in gambling and/or betting, personal signature of the applicant. The submitted application shall not be subject to return or withdrawal. Submission of an application to one of the organisers of gambling business shall be considered as submission of an application to all organisers of gambling business in the territory of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

A copy of the application accepted and registered by the gambling business operator shall be sent to the competent authority no later than five working days following the day on which it was accepted.

On the grounds of an enforceable court decision restricting a citizen's legal capacity, close relatives and family members may apply to an authorised body to include such a person on the list of persons restricted from participating in gambling and (or) betting.

3. Not later than three working days following the day of receipt of such an application, the authorised body shall enter information on an individual in the list of persons restricted from gambling and (or) betting, access to which is provided only to organisers of gambling business via the internet resource of the authorised body.

Information on persons restricted from gambling and/or betting shall be confidential.

Persons gaining access to information on persons restricted from gambling and/or betting shall ensure its confidentiality by requiring that it is not disseminated without the consent of the applicant or his/her legal representative or other legal basis.

Persons who become aware of information on persons restricted from participating in gambling and/or betting in connection with professional, job or employment relationships shall be obliged to keep it confidential.

4. Prior to the expiry of the restriction on gambling and/or betting, an individual may apply to extend the restriction for a new period.

5. After the day of expiration of the self-restriction period for participation in gambling and/or betting, the authorised body shall ensure that the participant in gambling and/or betting is removed from the list of persons restricted from participation in gambling and/or betting.

In compliance with the third part of paragraph 2 hereof, a person included in the list of persons restricted from participating in gambling and/or betting shall be removed from the list by an authorised body based on a legally enforceable court decision to lift the restriction of a citizen's legal capacity.

6. Gambling and/or betting with persons on the restricted list shall be prohibited.

It shall be prohibited to accept (make) cash and non-cash payments without the participation of the betting centre including electronic money, between the betting participant and the bookmaker or totalizator office, including the payment of winnings.

The betting centre shall refuse to accept (make) cash and non-cash payments, including electronic money, from (in favour of) a person on the list of persons restricted from participating in gambling and/or betting.

Article 16. Responsibility for violation of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan on gambling industry

Violation of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan on gambling industry entails liability under the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Article 16-1. State control over compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan on gambling business

1. State control over compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan on gambling business is carried out in the form of unscheduled inspection, preventive control with visiting the subject (object) of control, as well as preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control.

2. Unscheduled inspection and preventive control with visiting the subject (object) of control are carried out in accordance with the Entrepreneurial Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

3. Preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control is carried out in accordance with the Entrepreneurial Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan and this Law.

4. Subjects of state control are organizers of gambling business.

5. The objectives of preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control are timely suppression and prevention of violations, granting the right to control subjects to eliminate violations independently, identified by the authorized body according to the results of preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control, and reducing the administrative burden on them.

6. Preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control is carried out by comparing reports submitted by the organizers of gambling business to the authorized body, certificates of availability and movement of money on bank accounts opened at the time of conclusion of the bank deposit agreement, information from authorized organizations and state bodies by means of request and information obtained from various sources of information.

7. In case of detection of violations based on the results of preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control in actions (inaction) of the subject of control, the authorized body executes and sends a recommendation within ten business days from the date of detection of violations.

8. The recommendation shall be handed over to the subject of control in person, upon signature or otherwise, confirming the facts of dispatch and receipt.

A recommendation sent by one of the following means shall be deemed to have been delivered in the following cases:

1) By courier - from the date of the mark in the recommendation on receipt;

2) by registered mail - by registered mail;

3) by electronic means - from the date of sending by the authorized body to the e-mail address of the subject of control specified in the letter at the request of the authorized body.

9. The recommendation on elimination of violations revealed by results of preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control shall be executed within ten working days from the day following the day of its delivery.

10. In case of disagreement with violations specified in the recommendation, the subject of control has the right to send an objection to the authorized body that sent the recommendation within five working days from the day following the day of delivery of the recommendation.

Failure to implement the recommendation on elimination of violations revealed by the results of preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control within the established term shall result in appointment of preventive control with visiting the subject (object) of control by means of inclusion into the half-year list of preventive control with visiting the subject (object) of control.

12. Preventive control without visiting the subject (object) of control is carried out not more often than once a quarter.
