In case of refusal of an administrative civil servant from the proposed position, he is subject to dismissal. Administrative civil servants with at least three years of public service experience receive a severance pay in the amount of four average monthly wages.

8. In the cases provided for in paragraphs 6 and 7 of this article, it is not allowed to appoint administrative civil servants to temporarily vacant public positions in the presence of another vacant public position, except in the cases of substitution of a temporarily absent civil servant or the consent of the civil servant himself.

An administrative civil servant who has received notification of a proposed position in accordance with paragraphs 6 and 7 of this article is obliged to inform about the decision taken within five working days.

In the absence of a decision within the specified period, the civil servant is subject to dismissal.

9. Changing the name of the position of an administrative civil servant or the name of the state body (structural unit) in which he works, which does not entail a change in working conditions, is not a reason for termination of public service of an administrative civil servant or reassignment to another position.

In this case, the authorized person (body), who has the right to appoint to an administrative public position, issues an appropriate act on the appointment to a public position.

10. If the main employee vacated his administrative public service position without going to work, then the civil servant holding this temporarily vacant public service position can continue to work on a permanent basis without holding a competition.

In this case, the authorized person (body), who has the right to appoint to an administrative public position, issues an appropriate act on the appointment of a person hired for a temporarily vacant public position to a public position on a permanent basis.

11. In the event of the death of a civil servant, his family members receive a lump sum in the amount of three average monthly salaries at the last place of service in a state body, while the amount of the benefit cannot be lower than the amount established by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On state social benefits for disability and loss of breadwinner in the Republic of Kazakhstan".

12. Administrative civil servants in corps "B", excluding those in managerial positions, who work and reside in rural areas shall be provided with additional social support measures stipulated by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Footnote. Article 56 as amended by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 26.11.2019 № 273-VI (shall be enforced upon expiry of ten calendar days after the day of its first official publication); as amended by Law of the RK № 357-VI of 03.07.2020 (shall take effect ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication).

Article 57. Guarantees and compensations to civil servants for business trips

1. Civil servants shall be reimbursed for expenses on business travel, including to foreign states, in the manner determined by the Government of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Guarantees and the right to receive daily allowances for the time on a business trip, travel expenses to and from the destination, expenses for renting an accommodation as prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan shall apply to civil servants and contract servants in state bodies.

2. Civil servants who are seconded shall retain their place of work (public office) and salary for the duration of the secondment.

Footnote. Article 57 as amended by Law of the RK № 357-VI of 03.07.2020 (shall come into force ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication); dated 20.03.2023 № 214-VII (shall be enforced ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication).

Article 58. Guarantees and compensations to diplomatic staff

Guarantees and compensations to the personnel of the diplomatic service are established by the law defining the legal framework, as well as the procedure for ensuring the activity of the diplomatic service of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Chapter 9-1. State control in the field of civil service

Footnote. The law has been supplemented by Chapter 9-1 in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 06.04.2024 № 71-VIII (shall be enforced upon expiry of sixty calendar days after the day of its first official publication).

Article 58-1. State control over compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service

1. State control over compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service is the activity of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision, aimed at ensuring compliance by state bodies with the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service and official ethics.

2. State control over compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service shall be carried out in the form of an inspection.

Article 58-2. General questions of inspection

1. The inspection by the authorized body and its territorial subdivision shall be carried out

1) by visiting the state body being inspected;

2) without visiting the state body being inspected by calling officials and requesting materials, as well as through the information systems of state bodies.

2. The subject of the inspection is compliance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service and official ethics.

3. Inspections of the activities of central state bodies and their departments shall be carried out by officials of the authorized body, and local state bodies and territorial subdivisions of central state bodies and their departments - by the employees of territorial subdivisions of the authorized body within their competence, and, if necessary, by officials of the authorized body.

4. Inspections are divided into scheduled and unscheduled inspections.

5. The basis for the appointment of a scheduled inspection is the semi-annual inspection plan of state bodies approved by the first head of the authorized body before December 20 of the year preceding the year of scheduled inspections and before May 20 of the current calendar year.

The semi-annual inspection plan of state bodies shall be posted on the Internet resource of the authorized body.

The semi-annual inspection plan of state bodies may be amended by the decision of the authorized body.

6. The following sources of information shall be used for inclusion in the semi-annual inspection plan of state bodies:

1) the results of previous inspections of the authorized body and (or) its territorial divisions, the Administration of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

2) the results of monitoring reporting and information provided by state bodies, including through information systems, carried out by the authorized body and its territorial divisions;

3) the presence of adverse incidents caused by the fault of state bodies or civil servants, which caused a public outcry and criticism of the public administration system;

4) the presence of appeals from individuals and legal entities regarding state bodies for violation of the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service and non-compliance with official ethics;

5) analysis of the Internet resources of state bodies and the media for the presence of materials that have caused criticism from the population;

6) the results of the analysis of information provided by authorized bodies and organizations, as well as obtained from other sources of information.

7. The grounds for an unscheduled inspection shall be:

1) appeals from individuals and legal entities to actions (inaction) and decisions of state bodies or officials on the issues of violation of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service, as well as compliance with official ethics;

2) appeals from state bodies regarding violations of the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service;

3) monitoring the execution of requests to eliminate identified violations;

4) violations of the requirements of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service, identified by the results of monitoring carried out by the authorized body and its territorial divisions in accordance with the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

5) publications in the media and reports of violations of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of public service, studied with a request for information.

8. Unscheduled inspections shall not be carried out in cases of anonymous requests.

Article 58-3. The procedure for conducting an inspection

1. The beginning of an inspection is considered to be the sending of a notification to the state body being inspected about the start of the inspection.

Upon arrival at the state body being inspected, officials of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision shall be required to present an official ID or identification card.

2. The terms of the inspection shall be established taking into account the volume of works to be done, as well as the tasks assigned, and should not exceed:

1) twenty working days from the date of the start of the scheduled inspection;

2) ten working days from the date of the start of the unscheduled inspection.

3. If necessary, the terms for conducting an inspection can be extended only once for a period not exceeding the terms determined by paragraph 2 of this Article, by a decision of the management of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision.

When extending the terms and (or) suspending (resuming) the terms for conducting an inspection, the authorized body or its territorial subdivision shall notify the inspected state body about this no later than one working day from the date of such decision.

The composition of inspection officials of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision may be changed by a decision of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision.

If the composition of the inspection officials of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision changes, the authorized body or its territorial subdivision shall notify the inspected state body about this no later than one working day from the date of such decision.

4. The inspection shall be suspended:

1) in cases of sending a request to state bodies, officials, and other persons to provide the necessary information that is essential within the framework of the inspection;

2) when a state of emergency is introduced, taking into account the main and temporary restrictive measures provided for the period of its validity.

The period for conducting a suspended inspection continues to be calculated from the day it is resumed.

5. Based on the results of the inspection, the official of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision carrying out the inspection shall draw up:

- 1) a certificate of inspection results;
- 2) a proposal to eliminate violations identified as a result of the inspection.

The first copy of the certificate of inspection results shall be submitted in electronic form to the state body that carries out activities in the field of state legal statistics and special accounting within its competence, the second copy on paper against signature or in electronic form shall be handed over to the state body being inspected (the head or his authorized representative) for review, the third copy remains with the authorized body or its territorial subdivision.

Forms of notifications about the start of an inspection, extension of the terms and (or) suspension (resumption) of the terms of the inspection, changes in the composition of the inspection officials of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision, certificates of the results of the inspection and submissions on the elimination of violations identified as a result of the inspection shall be approved by the authorized body.

6. A certificate of inspection results shall be drawn up no later than the last day of the inspection period.

7. The date of completion of the inspection shall be considered to be the day the certificate of inspection results is sent to the inspected state body.

8. If there are comments and (or) objections based on the results of the inspection, the head of the inspected state body, within three working days from the date of receipt of the certificate of the results of the inspection, shall state the comments and (or) objections in writing.

Comments and (or) objections shall be attached to the certificate of inspection results, about which a corresponding note is made by the inspection official of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision.

Article 58-4. Measures taken by officials of the authorized body or its territorial subdivision in response to violations identified during the inspection

1. In case of identification of violations of the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in the field of civil service, based on the results of an inspection, the authorized body or its territorial subdivision shall submit to the inspected state body a mandatory submission for consideration on eliminating the violations identified as a result of the inspection, and also take other measures provided for by the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

A proposal to eliminate violations identified as a result of the inspection shall be submitted by the authorized body or its territorial subdivision to the inspected state body no later than five working days from the date of drawing up the certificate of inspection results.

2. The proposal to eliminate violations identified as a result of the inspection shall be subject to consideration with the adoption of measures to eliminate the violations specified in it within thirty calendar days.

3. Information on the results of eliminating the violations specified in the proposal to eliminate violations identified as a result of the inspection by the inspected state body shall be sent to the authorized body or its territorial subdivision within three working days from the date of its consideration.

Article 58-5. Rights of officials of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision

When conducting an inspection, officials of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision shall have the right to:

- 1) unhindered access to the territory and premises of the inspected state body;
- 2) receive copies of documents (information) on paper and electronic media for inclusion in a certificate of inspection results or a proposal to eliminate violations identified as a result of the inspection, as well as access to automated databases (information systems) in accordance with the subject of the inspection;
- 3) carry out audio, photo, and video recording;
- 4) use records of technical control equipment, surveillance and recording devices, photographic and video equipment related to the subject of the inspection;
- 5) attract specialists, consultants, and experts from state bodies and subordinate organizations.

Article 58-6. Rights and obligations of the inspected state body and its officials during the inspection

1. When conducting an inspection, the state bodies being inspected and their officials shall have the right:

- 1) not to allow officials of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision who arrived to conduct the inspection to be inspected in the following cases:
  - exceeding or expiration of inspection deadlines;
  - assignments to carry out inspections to the persons who do not have the appropriate powers;
  - extension of inspection terms beyond the period established by this Law;
  - gross violations of the inspection requirements established by this Law;
- 2) not to submit documents (information) if they do not relate to the subject of the inspection;
- 3) to appeal the results of the inspection (certificate of inspection results, submission to eliminate violations identified as a result of the inspection) and actions (inaction) of the inspection officials of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision in the manner established by this Law and the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- 4) to record the process of carrying out the inspection, as well as individual actions of an official of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision, carried out by him as part of the inspection, using audio and video equipment, without creating obstacles to the activities of the official.

2. When conducting inspections, the inspected state bodies and their officials shall be obliged to:

- 1) ensure unimpeded access for inspection officials of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision to the territory and premises of the inspected state body;
- 2) appear when called by officials of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision;
- 3) provide the inspecting officials of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision with documents (information) on paper and electronic media or copies thereof for inclusion in the certificate of inspection results, as well as access to automated databases (information systems) in accordance with the subject of the inspection;
- 4) not allow changes and additions to the documents being checked during the inspection.

Article 58-7. Invalidity of the inspection

1. An inspection shall be recognized as invalid if it is carried out in gross violation of the requirements for conducting an inspection established by this Article.

Recognizing the inspection as invalid entails the invalidity of the certificate of inspection results and the proposal to eliminate violations identified as a result of the inspection.

2. Gross violations of inspection requirements include:

- 1) lack of grounds for conducting an inspection;
- 2) lack of notification of the start of the inspection;
- 3) appointment by the authorized body and its territorial division of inspections on the issues not within their competence.

3. The inspected state body, within ten working days from the date of receipt of the certificate of the results of the inspection, shall have the right to apply to the authorized body with an appeal to recognize the inspection conducted by the authorized body and its territorial subdivision as invalid.

Consideration by the authorized body of the appeal of the inspected state body to recognize the inspection of the authorized body and its territorial subdivision as invalid shall be carried out within fifteen working days from the date of receipt of the appeal.

Filing an appeal by the inspected state body does not preclude taking measures to eliminate violations identified by the inspection.

The refusal of the authorized body to satisfy the appeal may be appealed to the court.

Chapter 10. TERMINATION OF THE CIVIL SERVICE BY CIVIL SERVANTS

Article 59. Termination of the civil service by political civil servants

Powers of a political civil servant at an occupied political position shall be terminated in cases such as:

- 1) the loss of citizenship of the Republic of Kazakhstan;
- 1-1) holding citizenship of a foreign country;

2) the abolition (liquidation) of a state body;

3) submission by a political civil servant of knowingly false information on the income and property fully belonging to him/her;

Note

Article 59 is to be supplemented with subparagraph 3-1) in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 03.01.2023 № 188-VII (shall be enforced from 01.01.2027)

4) non-performance of duties and non-compliance with restrictions established by the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

5) failure to transfer for trust management the property fully owned by him/her;

6) committing an administrative corruption offense, except for the case when a political civil servant was first brought to administrative responsibility for hiring a person who did not submit a declaration of assets and liabilities;

7) the entry into legal force of the conviction of a court against a political civil servant;

8) acceptance of resignation pursuant to a political civil servant's personal written application for resignation;

9) a relevant decision made by an official (official body) entitled to appoint (select) a political civil servant to his/her civil service position;

10) transfer to another job;

11) admission to civil service of persons specified in subparagraphs 6), 6-1), 7), 8), 9), 9-1), 9-2), 10), 11) and 14) of part one of paragraph 3 of Article 16 of this Law;

12) excluded by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 10.01.2025 № 156-VIII (effective ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication);

13) termination of the criminal case on the basis of paragraphs 3), 4), 9), 10) and 12) of part one of article 35 or article 36 of the Criminal Procedure Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan for committing a corruption offence, as well as a criminal case for committing a crime as a criminal group member by a prosecuting agency or court on the basis of paragraphs 3), 4), 9), 10) and 12) of part one of article 35 and article 36 of the Criminal Procedure Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan before expiration of the lower limit of the custodian sentence specified in the relevant article of the Special Part of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

14) submission of knowingly fake documents or information when entering the civil service, which could be grounds for refusing admission to the civil service;

15) reaching the retirement age established by the law of the Republic of Kazakhstan, unless otherwise provided by the Constitution and laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Upon reaching the retirement age, political civil servants appointed by the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan may continue to exercise their powers by the decision of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan, as a rule, for up to five years;

15-1) loss of confidence pursuant to paragraph 5 of Article 60 of this Law;

15-2) rejection of rotation, taking into account compliance with the requirements prescribed by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan on civil service;

16) the emergence of other grounds stipulated by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Powers of a political civil servant may also be terminated in cases of reorganization of a state body, reduction of the number or staffing positions of civil servants, transformation of a political civil service position into an administrative civil service position.

The effect of part three of Article 59 is suspended until 01.01.2027 by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 10.01.2025 № 156-VIII (effective ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication) and during the period of suspension this paragraph shall be valid as follows.

Political civil servants dismissed under subparagraphs 3), 4), 5), 6), 7), 11), 13), 14) and 15-1) of the first part of this article shall be recognized as dismissed for negative reasons.

Footnote. Article 59 as amended by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 19.04.2019 № 249-VI (shall be enforced upon expiry of ten calendar days after the day of its first official publication); № 393-VI of 30.12.2020 (shall be enacted ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication); dated 03.01.2023 № 188-VII (the procedure for entry into force, see Article 2); dated 20.03.2023 № 214-VII (shall be enforced ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication); dated 10.01.2025 № 156-VIII (effective ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication).

Article 60. Resignation and dismissal of political civil servants

1. Resignation is political civil servants' termination of the performance of duties required by a relevant civil service position pursuant to their written applications.

2. Resignation shall be accepted or given a reasoned refusal by a state body or an official who appointed (selected) a political civil servant to this civil service position. The decision to accept or refuse resignation shall be made within a month from the date of submission of the written application. If resignation is refused, a political civil servant shall continue to exercise his/her official powers and is entitled to dismissal.

In the event of a refusal to resign, a political civil servant may be brought to disciplinary responsibility in accordance with the law by the decision of the person (body) who made the decision to refuse the resignation.

At the same time, a political civil servant is subject to disciplinary liability in accordance with the procedure established by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan if any of the following grounds exist during the period of his activity:

1) when a directly subordinate employee commits a corruption crime on a large or especially large scale;

2) when a directly subordinate employee commits a corruption crime, and it has been committed repeatedly;

3) when two or more directly subordinate employees commit a corruption crime.

3. Political civil servants shall resign and step down on the grounds and in accordance with the procedure established by the Constitution, this Law and other legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

If the grounds for resignation are not stipulated by the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan, political civil servants resign routinely as prescribed by this Law or the labor legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

3-1. Political civil servants referred to in subparagraphs 1), 2), 3), 4), 4-1) and 5) of this paragraph shall resign if, after three months from the date of their appointment, a corruption crime has been committed:

1) the head of the central state body - when a corruption offence has been committed by his/her deputy, a directly subordinate political civil servant, the head of the administration or the head of a regional, city of republican significance or capital city of the territorial subdivision of the central state body;

2) akim of a region, city of republican significance or the capital - when a corruption crime is committed by his/her deputy, directly subordinate political civil servant, head of the office or akim of a district (city of regional significance), a district in the city, with the exception of the elected akim;

3) deputy head of the central state body - when a corruption crime is committed by the head of the department supervised by him, an independent structural unit;

4) deputy akim of a region, a city of republican significance or the capital - when a corruption crime is committed by the head of the executive body supervised by him, financed from the local budget;

4-1) the head of the administration of the akim of the oblast, the city of republican scale and the capital - when a corruption crime is committed by his deputy, the head of the executive body supervised by him, financed from the local budget, the head of the directly subordinate structural unit of the administration of the akim of the oblast, the city of republican scale and the capital;

5) akim, with the exception of the persons specified in subparagraph 2) of this paragraph - for the commission of a corruption crime by his/her deputy, a head of the akim's office, a head of the executive body supervised by him/her, financed from the local budget.

Political civil servants submit their resignation on the grounds and in the manner provided for in part one of this paragraph, within ten calendar days after the entry into force of the court's conviction or the termination of the criminal case by the criminal prosecution body or the court on the basis of paragraphs 3), 4), 9), 10), 11) and 12) of part one of Article 35 or Article 36 of the Criminal Procedure Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

Features of the resignation of elected akims who are political civil servants shall be regulated by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan "On local government and self-government in the Republic of Kazakhstan".

3-2. Appointment of a political public servant to another political public position does not exempt him from the obligation to resign for a corruption crime committed by a directly subordinate employee at the former place of work of a political public servant during his activity on the grounds and in the manner provided for in paragraph 3-1 of this article.

4. A gross violation of official powers, commission of offences incompatible with the civil service, may not serve as grounds for the resignation of a political civil servant, but are grounds for dismissal. The grounds and procedure for dismissal of political civil servants shall be determined by the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

5. Political civil servants appointed by the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan may be dismissed by decision of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan in connection with the loss of confidence for non-performance or improper performance of their official powers.

Footnote. Article 60 as amended by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 26.11.2019 № 273-VI (shall be enforced upon expiry of ten calendar days after the day of its first official publication); № 393-VI of 30.12.2020 (shall take force ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication); dated 05.11.2022 № 157-VII (shall be enforced from 01.01.2023); dated 20.03.2023 № 214-VII (enforcement, see Art.2); dated 19.04.2023 № 223-VII (shall be enforced ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication);

Article 61. Termination of the civil service by administrative civil servants

1. Grounds for the termination of the civil service by administrative civil servants are as follows:

1) their application for resignation, except for cases of consideration of their responsibility for a corruption offence or committing a disciplinary offence discrediting the civil service;

2) excluded by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 10.01.2025 № 156-VIII (effective ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication);

3) their reaching of the retirement age established by the law of the Republic of Kazakhstan, with the right to extend the term of their civil service for one year by mutual agreement of the parties;

4) expiration or termination of the employment contract on the grounds stipulated by the labor legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan and legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan on the civil service;

5) expiration of terms of their powers stipulated by the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan and acts of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

6) the transformation of civil service positions held by them into political positions or civil service positions, to which citizens are appointed by local representative bodies or elected in accordance with the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

7) submission by an administrative civil servant of knowingly false information on the income and property fully owned by him/her;

Note!

Paragraph 1 is to be supplemented with subparagraph 7-1) in accordance with the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 03.01.2023 № 188-VII (shall be enforced from 01.01.2027)

8) non-performance of duties and (or) non-compliance with restrictions established by laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

9) failure to transfer in trust shares, stocks (shares) in the authorised capital of commercial organisations and other property, the use of which gives rise to income, except for money bonds, units of open and interval mutual investment funds legally owned by the person, as well as property that has been transferred for property rental;

10) the loss of citizenship of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

10-1) holding citizenship of a foreign country;

11) commission of an administrative corruption offense, except for the case when an administrative civil servant was first brought to administrative responsibility for hiring a person who did not submit a declaration of assets and liabilities;

12) the entry into legal force of the conviction of a court for committing a crime or an intentional criminal offence;

13) admission to an administrative public position of persons specified in the sub-paragraphs 6), 6-1), 7), 8), 9), 9-1), 9-2), 10), 11) and 14) the first part of paragraph 3 of Article 16 of this Law;

14) excluded by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 10.01.2025 № 156-VIII (effective ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication);

15) termination of the criminal case on the basis of paragraphs 3), 4), 9), 10) and 12) of part one of article 35 or article 36 of the Criminal Procedure Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan for committing a corruption offence, as well as a criminal case for committing a crime as a criminal group member by a prosecuting agency or court on the basis of paragraphs 3), 4), 9), 10) and 12) of part one of article 35 and article 36 of the Criminal Procedure Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan before expiration of the lower limit of the custodian sentence specified in the relevant article of the Special Part of the Criminal Code of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

16) submission of knowingly fake documents or information when entering the civil service, which could be grounds for refusing admission to the civil service;

17) failure to meet the requirements laid down in this Law for appointment or election to public office;

18) the out-of-competition occupation of an administrative civil service position, except for cases established by the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan;

19) negative results of the appraisal;

20) unsatisfactory results of their performance evaluation in accordance with this Law;

20-1) unsatisfactory results of the probationary period;

20-2) rejection of rotation, taking into account compliance with the requirements under the legislation of the Republic of Kazakhstan in civil service;

21) commission of a disciplinary offence discrediting the civil service;

22) other grounds stipulated by laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan and acts of the President of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

1-1. Taking up another civil service position shall not be grounds for termination of civil service by an administrative civil servant. In this case an act shall be issued on the dismissal of the administrative civil servant from the position held, except in cases of consideration of his liability for a corruption offence or the committed disciplinary offence that discredits the civil service.

2. Another ground for the termination of the civil service by corps “A” administrative civil servants is the decision of an official (official body) entitled to appoint to and dismiss from a civil service position upon recommendations made by the authorized commission.

Note!

An amendment is provided in paragraph 3 by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 03.01.2023 № 188-VII (shall be enforced from 01.01.2027).

3. Administrative civil servants dismissed under subparagraphs 7), 8), 9), 11), 12), 13), 15), 16) and 21) of paragraph 1 of this article, shall be recognized as dismissed for negative reasons.

4. Dismissal of administrative civil servants shall be carried out by the relevant official of a state body who has the right to admit to an administrative civil service position in accordance with this Law.

5. In case of disagreement with the dismissal, an administrative civil servant shall have the right to appeal against the decision on dismissal to his/her superior, to the authorised body or its territorial subdivisions, to the court in the manner prescribed by the laws of the Republic of Kazakhstan.

6. The replacement of political civil servants, as well as heads of state bodies who are administrative civil servants, is not a ground for the termination of civil service duties by an administrative civil servant at the initiative of newly appointed political and (or) administrative civil servants.

Footnote. Article 61 as amended by the Law of the Republic of Kazakhstan dated 26.11.2019 № 273-VI (shall be enforced upon expiry of ten calendar days after the day of its first official publication); № 357-VI of 03.07.2020 (shall come into force ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication); № 393-VI of 30.12.2020 (shall be enacted ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication); № 42-VII of 24.05.2021 (shall take effect ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication); № 351-VI of 29.06.2020 (shall be enforced on 01.07.2021); dated 03.01.2023 № 188-VII (the procedure for entry into force, see Article 2); dated 20.03.2023 № 214-VII (shall be enforced ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication; dated 10.01.2025 № 156-VIII (effective ten calendar days after the date of its first official publication).

Chapter 11. OTHER ISSUES

Article 62. Reinstatement in a civil service position

1.
